

The Hon. Richard A. Jones

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

NO. CR18-131-RAJ

Plaintiff,

V.

CHARLES ROLAND CHEATHAM, et al.,

SECOND PROTECTIVE ORDER RESTRAINING CERTAIN
FORFEITABLE PROPERTY

Defendants.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the United States' Second Motion for Entry of a Protective Order Restraining Certain Forfeitable Property, as follows:

1. One Sig Sauer P220, .45 caliber pistol, bearing Serial No. G232888, and any associated ammunition, seized on or about June 6, 2018, in Tumwater, Washington (hereafter, the “Subject Property”).

The Court, having reviewed the papers and pleadings filed in this matter, hereby FINDS entry of a protective order restraining the Subject Property is appropriate because:

- The United States gave notice of its intent to pursue forfeiture in the Indictment (Dkt. No. 1, at 18–20) and Superseding Indictment (Dkt. No. 414, at 24–25);
- The United States identified the Subject Property, specifically, as subject to forfeiture in a Forfeiture Bill of Particulars (Dkt. No. 497);

1 • Based on the facts set forth in Task Force Officer Huber's affidavit, there is
2 probable cause to believe that the Subject Property is subject to forfeiture in
3 this case; and
4 • To ensure that the Subject Property remains available for forfeiture, its
5 continued restraint, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(e)(1), is appropriate.

6

7 NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT ORDERS:

8 1. The United States' request for a protective order restraining the Subject
9 Property pending the conclusion of this case is GRANTED; and
10 2. The Subject Property shall remain in the custody of the United States, to 11 include its federal agencies and/or their authorized agents or representatives, pending the 12 conclusion of criminal forfeiture proceedings and/or further order of this Court.

13 DATED this 4th day of January, 2019.
